

1. What effect does the background education (specifically post-secondary degree) of the startup members have on the success of the start-up?

Extension Questions

1. Which post-secondary majors lead to the greatest number of successful startups
 2. Do startup members work in companies that are similar to the subject area they got their degree in? Specifically we are checking for companies related to the web.
2. What aspects (city, company type) lead to a successful start-up capable of being acquired?

Extension Questions

1. What aspects(city, company type) led to a closure of a start-up?
3. Which investors consistently invested in startups that ended up being successful?

Extension Questions

1. What is the total amount of money invested in startups that were acquired or had an IPO?
2. What is the average amount of money invested in startups that ended up closing?
3. . Which investors consistently invested in "failed" startups?